

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Constitution

ARTICLE III

GOVERNMENT

SECTION 1. The government and management of this Club is entrusted to a Board of Directors, composed of fifteen of its resident members, which shall be known as the Council, and shall exercise the usual powers of a board of directors, in accordance with the Act under which this Club is incorporated.

SECTION 2. The Directors named in the certificate of incorporation shall hold office for one year from the date of said incorporation; on the first Saturday of February, 1896, there shall be held an annual meeting of all the members of the Club, at which meeting members of the Council shall be balloted for, whose term of office shall commence one year from the date of said incorporation, to take the place of the present Directors. The said persons so elected shall be balloted for in three equal classes. The first class shall hold office until the first Saturday of February, 1897, or until its successor be elected ; the second class shall hold office until the first Saturday in February, 1898, or until its successor be elected; and the third class shall hold office until the first Saturday of February, 1899, or until its successor be elected ; and thereafter, at each annual meeting of the Club, five members shall be elected by ballot as members of the Council, to replace the outgoing class, whose term of office shall be three years.

SECTION 3. Members to fill vacancies which may occur in any of the classes, in the interim between any two regular elections, shall be appointed by the President, subject to confirmation by the Council. They shall hold office until the next regular election.

SECTION 4. A majority of all the votes cast shall be necessary to the election or confirmation of a member of the Council, either to a place in the incoming class or to fill a vacancy in either of the other classes.

SECTION 5. No member shall be eligible for election to the Council unless his name shall have been posted as a candidate in a conspicuous place in the Club for at least ten days before the election.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF THE COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Council shall elect annually from its own number a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Librarian, who shall hold office until the first Saturday of the succeeding February, and until their successors are elected; and no person shall continue to be such President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, or Librarian after he shall have ceased to be a member of the Council.

SECTION 2. The Council shall appoint from its own number an Auditing Committee of three, whose duty it shall be to audit the accounts of the Treasurer semi-annually, and report to the Council the accounts audited and allowed since its previous report; and such other Committees as to the Council may seem desirable. No member of the House Committee shall be appointed a member of the Auditing Committee, nor shall any member of the Auditing Committee be appointed a member of the House Committee.

The Caxton Club

SECTION 3. The Council shall have power to admit, by ballot, candidates for admission to membership in the Club. Two ballots cast in the negative shall exclude any candidate.

SECTION 4. The Council shall have power to expel or suspend any member of the Club by a seven vote, one month's previous notice in writing having been personally given to the member, with a copy of the charges preferred against him.

SECTION 5. The Council shall have power to prescribe rules for the admission of strangers and for the use of the Club by members.

Constitution

SECTION 6. The Council shall have power to remit penalties for the accidental violation of the Constitution and By-Laws.

SECTION 7. The Council shall make rules for its own government.

ARTICLE V

THE PRESIDENT

SECTION 1. The President, and in his absence the Vice-President, shall preside at the meetings of the Club, or of the Council.

ARTICLE VI

THE TREASURER

SECTION 1. The Treasurer shall collect all entrance fees and all dues, and shall keep the accounts of the Club, and report thereon at each regular meeting of the Council. He shall pay bills only on the certificate of their correctness by the Chairman, or by a majority of the members of each of the standing committees of the Council. The Treasurer shall not be a member of the House Committee or of the Auditing Committee.

SECTION 2. The Treasurer shall report to the Club, at each annual meeting, the financial condition of the Club, with the estimate for the current year, which report and estimate shall be printed and distributed by mail to members at least seven days before such annual meeting.

ARTICLE VII

THE SECRETARY

SECTION 1. The Secretary shall give notice of all meetings of the Club and of the Council, and shall keep the minutes of such meetings. He shall conduct the correspondence and keep the records of the Club. He shall furnish to the Treasurer the names of all persons admitted to membership of the Club, and shall notify such persons of their admission.

Constitution

ARTICLE VIII

THE LIBRARIAN

SECTION 1. The Librarian shall have the charge and disposition of all the books, papers, and manuscripts of the Club, and shall, with the concurrence of the Council, provide for their purchase, acceptance, and safe-keeping.

SECTION 2. The Librarian shall have power to appoint from the Club at large special committees upon the affairs of the Library, subject to confirmation of the Council. He shall also have power to require such committees, from time to time, to report to him concerning their actions, which reports shall be referred to the Council.

ARTICLE IX

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. The active members of this Club shall be divided into two classes,—Resident and Non-Resident

The Caxton Club

Members. The number of Resident and Non-Resident Members shall be as fixed by the Council from time to time. Non-Resident Members shall be those who reside during the whole year more than fifty miles from the city of Chicago. The Council may also elect Honorary Foreign Corresponding Members, and the Club may, at each annual meeting, elect one Honorary Member, by a unanimous vote.

SECTION 2. Candidates for membership must be men of known devotion to the objects of the Club; must be twenty-one or more years of age; and must be proposed and seconded by two members, in their own handwriting, in a book kept for that purpose, at least ten days previous to action by the Council, and their names be posted in a conspicuous place in the club-room for the same length of time.

SECTION 3. No candidate for membership shall be balloted for unless a letter, written on his behalf by his proposer or seconder, shall have been laid before the Council.

SECTION 4. A second ballot, upon the election of a proposed member, shall be taken at any time before the adjournment of a meeting, upon the motion of a single member of the Council.

ARTICLE X

ENTRANCE FEES AND YEARLY DUES

SECTION 1. The entrance fees shall be, for Resident Members, Twenty Dollars, and for Non-Resident Members, Fifteen Dollars, until the Resident Membership shall have reached One Hundred, when the entrance fees shall be, for Resident Members, Forty Dollars, and for Non-Resident Members, Twenty Dollars. If payment of the entrance fee is not made within thirty days after notice of election shall have been given, either to the candidate or his proposer or seconder, the election shall be void.

SECTION 2. The yearly dues shall be, for Resident Members, Fifteen Dollars, and for Non-Resident Members, Ten Dollars, payable on the first day of February in each year.

The Caxton Club

SECTION 3. Honorary Members shall not be required to pay either entrance fees or yearly dues.

ARTICLE XI

MEETINGS OF THE CLUB

SECTION 1. There shall be a meeting of the Club on the first Saturday of February in each year, at such hour as the Council shall designate.

SECTION 2. Upon the written request of ten members the President shall call a special meeting of the Club to consider a special subject or subjects, of which meeting and of which subject or subjects ten days' notice shall be given to all members.

SECTION 3. One fifth of all the Resident Members of the Club shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Club.

Constitution

ARTICLE XII

MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Council shall meet once a month, at such hour and place as it may designate, excepting the months of June, July, August, and September. Special meetings may be called by order of the President, or of a majority of the House Committee.

SECTION 2. Five of the members of the Council shall constitute a quorum. The absence of one of the members of the Council from three consecutive regular meetings shall be considered equal to his resignation as a member, unless such excuse in writing be made as shall be satisfactory to the Council.

SECTION 3. In no case, when a resolution has been passed at a meeting of the Council affecting the relations of a member of the Club, shall such resolution be reviewed, acted upon, or rescinded at a subsequent meeting, without notice in writing being sent by the Secretary to each member of the Council, at least ten days before the meeting, that such previous action will be brought up for review or reconsideration.

ARTICLE XIII

STANDING COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. The Council shall elect, at its first meeting after each annual meeting, three of its members to act as a House Committee, whose duty it shall be to receive and act upon complaints and suggestions of members, reporting monthly to the Council.

SECTION 2. The Council shall in like manner elect six of its members to act as a Committee on Publications, whose duty shall be, subject to the directions of the Council, to supervise all publications issued by the Club, reporting monthly to the Council. The Committee on Publications may, from time to time, add to its own number, for a temporary purpose, other members of the Club as advisory members of such Committee.

Constitution

SECTION 3. The authority of the Committees to contract debts shall proceed only from the Council.

ARTICLE XIV

AMENDMENTS AND ALTERATIONS

SECTION 1. Amendments to the Constitution or By-Laws may be made at any monthly meeting of the Council by a vote of eight; alterations of any rule of the Council, by a majority vote.

SECTION 2. Notice of proposed amendments to the Constitution or By-Laws, or alteration of the rules, shall be furnished to the Secretary at least twenty days before the meeting at which it is proposed to consider them, and as Secretary he shall cause the same to be printed and distributed to the members of the Council ten days before the meeting.

ARTICLE XV

NOTICES

SECTION 1. A member may inscribe in a book, to be kept by the Secretary, a mail address for notices prescribed or directed by the Constitution or By-Laws. In the absence of such inscription, such notices shall be served by depositing them in the Club letter-box, addressed to him, and he shall be held to have received them ten days after they are so mailed or deposited.

The Caxton Club

ARTICLE XVI

PENALTIES

SECTION 1. Any member who shall fail to pay any amount due to the Club exceeding Five Dollars (excepting the yearly dues) for one month after personal service of a notice of the indebtedness and a request to pay the same shall, upon the facts being presented to the Council, cease to be a member, subject to the provisions of Section 6 of Article IV.

SECTION 2. Any member who shall fail to pay the yearly dues for two months after the first day of February shall thereupon thereby be suspended from the Club and not entitled to any of the Club privileges ; and in case such dues shall remain unpaid for one month thereafter, or for three months in all from the first day of February, he shall thereupon thereby cease to be a member—all subject to the provisions of Section 6 of Article IV.

ARTICLE XVII

REMOVALS

SECTION 1. Resident Members who intend to reside more than fifty miles from the city of Chicago for one or more calendar years may, on giving notice to the Treasurer and Secretary, be transferred to the list of Non-Resident Members during such year or years of absence. Non-Resident Members who become Resident Members, and shall have not paid the entrance fee of a Resident Member, shall pay the difference between the entrance fees of the two classes.

The Caxton Club

ARTICLE XVIII

CONSTRUCTION OF CONSTITUTION AND RULES

SECTION 1. In respect to all questions of construction of the Constitution and By-Laws, the decision of the Council shall control and be binding.

ARTICLE XIX

POWERS OF COMMITTEES, ETC.

SECTION 1. The House Committee is authorized to manage the Club rooms, and to regulate prices; to contract monthly for the Club debts, in the aggregate not exceeding a sum to be designated by the Council; to receive and redress complaints; and to hire and dismiss all employees—all subject to the supervision of the Council.
